Gov

Mr W. T. Seals at Claremont is engaged in cutting wood for the Road, Mr W. M. Ramsey at this station for whose exemption I telegraphed last night, is employed with me at the works upon the Bridge & also supplies us with wood, Both are indispensibly necessary, Will you be kind enough to forward their exemptions to me as early as convenient

Very Respectfully

I have just been notified that Mr W. A. Sanders & Mr E. J. Moody, who hold exemptions under the Act of Congress approved Feb'y 17th 1864 (allowing Rail Roads one man to each mile of Road") have been ordered to report, They are supplying this Company with Timber and it is im-possible to get along without them, Will you oblige by issuing an order to the Colns of Militia not to interfere with such Persons as hold exemptions ~~above~~ under the above act, Mr Seal will present this to you will you please send me the necessary orders
